

Cool and collected

Artist and maker Bridie Hall has made her mark on her Victorian house in north London with eclectic collections of antique finds and her own eye-catching works set against bold blocks of colour

SITTING ROOM (both pages) Max the miniature poodle relaxes on an antique armchair, upholstered in a yellow linen by Du Long et Du L  , beside a prototype d  coupage-topped folding table by Bridie. Shelves in Paint & Paper Library's 'Chinese Emperor' pick up on the yellow in a Larusi rug. At the far end, an Eero Saarinen dining table with Hans Wegner 'Wishbone' chairs overlooks the garden. Bridie's collection of antique volcano paintings, acquired over the years, frames the large window
