

THE POWER

OF QUIET

Evoking calm and contemplation, this east London home's interior is sumptuous in its simplicity

Words KATE JACKSON Photography ANDY CLARKE

'By keeping the home's aesthetic MINIMAL, we've created a retreat-like place of CALM'

The interior was designed by architect Daniel Hopwood, who has also created the interior of the new Design Museum in London. The sofa is from Carved and the chair is from Living Edge. The pendant light is from Lightyears. The painting is from Barneby Gates. The artwork on the wall is by John Minton. The floor is made of Scandinavian oak from Woodpecker. The curtains are from Denim Interiors, the pillows are from Designers Guild, and the sofa is covered in Scandinavian Linen from Scandinavian Linen.
