

Global nomad

International influences abound this season, from African weaves and geometrics to palm motifs and vibrant designs from the Americas and India

By Sarah Lyall for www.houseandgarden.com

HEAVY HUED DESIGN

The simple, bold, natural colors of international graphic prints, combined with rich, warm hues like red, yellow, green and blue, are a seasonal staple. In 2014, designers are embracing a palette of vibrant, saturated colors. From bold, geometric patterns to palm motifs and vibrant designs from the Americas and India, the season's design is all about bold, natural colors and rich, warm hues. The season's design is all about bold, natural colors and rich, warm hues. The season's design is all about bold, natural colors and rich, warm hues.

STYLING

A colorful and sophisticated living room featuring a patterned sofa, two orange armchairs, and a striped ottoman. The room is decorated with patterned curtains, a floor lamp, and a framed abstract painting.

